

PLEASE JOIN US THIS THURSDAY!

The James Baird Gallery is excited to announce the group show La Raza. The group will launch an exhibition of their works at the gallery, April 28 running until May 18.

Scott Macleod, Gerald Pedros and Francis Caprani have traveled the world working as a group focusing on giving back to the communities that they have learned so much from .

They are currently staying and working here in Newfoundland at the Pouch Cove Residency Program. During the month of April, the group has traveled the land and met the people searching for the spirit Newfoundland, and the works compiled have captured this with a beautiful diversity.

We would like to Welcome you and the public to attend the opening of the show Thursday, April 28 from 5 to 7 pm at the gallery 221 Duckworth.

All Artists will be in attendance. Admission is free.

For interviews or further information, please contact James Baird at the gallery, 726-4502 or email jbaird@jamesbaird.com
